

Please do nothing to alter Indiana's current telephone privacy law. My husband and I both work long, hard days and would be inundated by telemarketers from 5-9pm every evening. We would tell them to remove our names from their files, but it never did any good. Thanks to this law, we no longer get calls at all. The silence is so appreciated. Please do not mess with this law.